*“The Flibets : Small steps towards a giant leap:
A new learning galaxy for preschoolers”*

Fostering essential 21 st century attributes, such as values, CLIL, creativity and collaboration at pre-primary level is of great importance. Although this may be a challenge to implement at lower levels, a variety of cumulative learning strategies and scaffolding techniques, together with creating familiarity through imagination, can help ensure that our young learners’ first steps in discovering the English language involve engagement and excitement, while catering for their social and emotional

and non-verbal communication skills*

The success or failure of real life communication is often decided by non-verbal factors. If our learners are to interact confidently and effectively, they must be aware of the impact that their tone of voice, body language and appearance will have on their audience. In this session we look at practical ways we can help our learners improve this often-neglected aspect of communicative competence.
